Dear Ms. Barkley,

I am in receipt of your correspondence dated May 15, 1996, regarding the above referenced report. This letter serves as an amendment to that report.

I am enclosing copies of the contribution checks from West Publishing PAC, which are the subject of your inquiry. The check dated December 28, 1995, for $5,000 was intended by the contributor to count against the 1995 calendar year limit, and was reported as a contribution to Monday Morning PAC on the contributor's 1995 Year-End Report. The check dated January 2, 1996, for $5,000 was intended by the contributor to count against the 1996 calendar year limit, and was reported, accordingly, to the Federal Election Commission.

Please be advised that Monday Morning PAC did not receive either of the contribution checks until February, 1996. I am enclosing an amended Schedule A itemizing the two contributions, with an explanation of when the checks were issued and reported by the contributor.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

James T. Spinnler
Treasurer
